Review of the Third Reports of the Government of Taiwan on the Implementation of the International Human Rights Covenants (ICCPR & ICESCR)

Concluding Observations and Recommendations adopted by the International Review Committee
Taipei, 13 May 2022

Digital and Online Sex and Gender-Based Crimes

33. While acknowledging the National Human Rights Commission' s recognition of the seriousness of digital and online sex and gender-based crimes and other human rights violations, and the Government' s plan to amend the related laws to increase the levels of punishment and protection, the Review Committee is concerned that illegal sexual audio-visual material and hate crimes are not easily eliminated from the digital or cyberspace, and victims continue to suffer.
34. The Review Committee recommends that the Government expedite its efforts to take all necessary legislative, administrative, financial, educational and other measures to effectively deal with digital and online sex and gender-based human rights violations. The Committee also recommends that victims are provided

Four Key Laws to Curb the Use of Technology-Enabled Sexual Images and Video

- Draft amendments to partial articles of Criminal Code (刑法部分條文修正草案)
- Child and Youth Sexual Exploitation Prevention Act (兒童及少年性剝削防制條例)
- Sexual Assault Crime Prevention Act (性侵害犯罪防治法)
- Crime Victim Protection Act (犯罪被害人保護法)

Challenges

- ◆ Draft amendments to partial articles of Criminal Code
 - ✓ without person's consent
 - ✓ prison term
- ◆ NGO : terms way too short; consensual records yet unconsensual distribution

Challenges

 The lack of preliminary injunction against publication and dissemination of nonconsensual distributed sexual image

Telegram

Challenges

The lack of service provided by Trauma and Rehab Centers during the proceedings.

Assist crime victims in obtaining suitable treatment to treat their physical and mental injuries, rehabilitation and returning to their normal lives, and occupational trainings

Challenges

 The lack of provision of sexuality and gender education

Comprehensive sexuality education as a primary prevention strategy for sexual violence perpetration

Challenges

 Lack of international cooperation to fight the dissemination of non-consensual intimate images
